Profile

I am a Certified Public Accountant of Kenya with over 24years of progressive work experience in financial management, budgeting and budgetary controls, Financial reporting, Human resource management and risk management gained from both Private and public sectors

My career has been grounded in the principles of Intergrity, transparency, accountability, and sound financial governance.

Currently, I serve as Manager Finance and Accounts substantively and acting Director Corporate Services at Nuclear, Power and Energy Agency, where I oversee financial operations, ensure regulatory compliance, contribute to long-term financial planning, coordinate Human resource and ICT functions. I have a proven track record of leading finance teams, optimizing internal controls, and supporting organizational sustainability through prudent financial stewardship.

My governance experience includes serving as a Member of Ministerial Audit Committee of Ministry of Agriculture Fisheries and Livestock, Ministry of Environment and Natural Resources and Currently at Ministry of health where I provided expertise in financial reporting, risk management, and audit oversight. I have a strong understanding of fiduciary responsibilities and the importance of aligning financial strategy with mission-driven objectives.

I hold a Masters Degree in Business Administration (Operation |management), and Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting option), both from the University of Nairobi and a Diploma in Public Management from the University of Chile. I am also a certified member of Institute of Public Accountant of Kenya (ICPAK) and a fully paid up member of the Association of Women Accountants(AWAK). I have undertaken a Senior Management Course and Corporate Governance Training Course for Directors, equipping me with a comprehensive understanding of board dynamics and effective decision-making.

Commitment to the Membership

As a prospective board member, I commit to bring a disciplined, analytical approach to financial matters and a deep commitment to strong governance. I am eager to contribute my expertise in financial oversight, budgeting, risk assessment, and audit practices to support the board's strategic goals and ensure the organization's long-term viability.
